The Student Union Malmö is a non-profit, non-political and non-religious organization. The Student Union Malmö is working for a better education and a safer student life for the students at Malmö University.

Welcome all new students!

First of all we would like to give all new students a very warm welcome to Malmö! Except from strong wind and screaming seagulls there are many things to explore in Sweden's most continental city. If you are a food lover like us, you should visit Möllan, where you can enjoy food from all over the world, and to student friendly prices. We our self have been both new students and new in this city. Through the years we have explored this amazing city that is full of happiness, love and diversity. And now it's your turn to be a part of it!

To study at a University means a whole lot of reading, exams and seminars, but your time as a student can be so much more. That's why the Student Union Malmö is here to make sure you get the best student life! With passionate and engaged students, we are working to create a strong student influence so that we together can make an impact and improve our education. All students are more than welcome to be a part of our work, so, do you want to make your voice heard? Come to the Union!

The Union is also here to make sure you have fun outside of your studies. One way to enrich your spare time is to join one of our associations. They all offer a wide variety of activities, everything from international travels, interesting workshops and seminars, to pub and club nights. As a member of the Union you also get to take part of our cheap soup lunch and student breakfast, as well as our cozy music nights in the student pub, where you have the chance to perform for other students.

As a new student and Malmö resident you have probably already noticed the housing shorting for students in this city. We hope that you have managed to find an accommodation. During this operational year, we at the Union will focus even more to improve the living situation for students. All students have the right to find a good and safe accommodation during their study period.

Something else that we students are lacking is good study space at the University. Since the existing group rooms and study spots are so popular it's not always easy to find a good place to open your books. But you should know that you are always welcome to Kølsvinet, the hang out spot in the union building that's open for our members. This is the place to be! Talk to the union people, get a cup of free coffee, study or just hang out with your friends.

As you now have realized, you made a good decision to come to Malmö and Malmö University. Not just because it's such an amazing city, but also because of the endless opportunities you have here as a student. We at the Union are also students, from all over the world, who work for YOU and your education. So, become a member, talk to us, study with us, travel with us, have a cup of coffee with us, eat soup with us, party with us, and let us all have the best student life together!

Rebecka Welanders, Union Vice President 17/18

CHECKLIST

- things to get done
your first weeks

At the beginning of the semester, there are many things that need to be fixed, as well as much to learn and a lot to keep track of! To make things easier for you as a new student, we've put together a checklist of key things you should do to get the best possible start!

1 Find accommodation

To find a place to live is often the first problem to solve. We know how difficult it is for students to find accommodation in Malmö, so we have gathered some tips that hopefully can be helpful. Read our advices on page 6: Where should you stay?

2 Get a Computer-ID

You need your computer-ID to log on to computers, accessing the wireless network, and It's learning. You must order your computer-ID before you can register for your course. You can do it at idservice.mah.se/.

3 Get a Multicard

Your multicard functions both as your library card, copy card, and access card. You can apply for a Multicard at Orkanen and Health and society. More information is available at mah.se/multicard.

4 Get a Wi-Fi account

To be able to connect to Malmö University's wireless network, Eduroam, you need to create a Wi-Fi account. Follow the steps in this guide: mah.se/english/Student/ITsupport/Programmes-and-Services/Eduroam-english/ and you'll be done in no time!

5 Join the Student Union

Whether you need help with school, to find a nightclub or just a microwave to warm up your lunch, the Student Union is here for you. To become a member, head to malmostudenter.se/english/become-member/ and follow the instructions, or visit the Union during our office hours. The membership fee is 158 SEK/ year.

6 Join ESN Malmö

ESN Malmö arranges lots of activities for International Students. Find out more about ESN and the other Union associations on page 11; Associations.

7 Literature scholarship

When the course starts, many new textbooks need to be purchased, putting a strain on the already thin student wallet. Apply for the Union's literary scholarship - a contribution of SEK 500 that is awarded to 3 members at the start of the semester. Find out more on page 14.

8 Get a bicycle

Biking is a smooth way of getting around in Malmö, both cheaper and more environmentally friendly than taking the bus! Check out Malmö City bicycle auctions for bike bargains or get a one-year subscription for rental bikes at malmobybike.se/en.

9 Have our Soup Lunch

Every Wednesday, the Union serves a soup lunch in Kølsvinet. For only 15 SEK, members of the Union, can buy vegetarian soup including bread and coffee. Check our Facebook page to find out what soup we are serving.

10 Join an association

Alongside your studies you need social activities. Within the Student Union we have a wide variety of associations. Choose what suits you best, perhaps choir, foreign affairs, environment, language exchange or feminism? You find all associations at page 11.

11 Have Union Coffee

Union Coffee is held once a month at each faculty. The Student Union visits your faculty to meet with students. Your student representative is present and you have the chance to tell us what you think about your education and what needs to be improved at the university, and of course, we always treat you to a cup of coffee!

Welcome to Malmö!

Welcome to Malmö, a student city in the making! Malmö is an open and dynamic city with people, culture, language and cuisine from every corner of the world! Malmö offers various cultural experiences, beach life and a diversity of events and activities. Malmö is an arena for discoveries and development, this is where ideas are born!

Congratulations! As a prospective student and Malmö resident you will arrive to a fun and exciting city within one of Europe's most expansive regions! Malmö is in the middle of a dynamic change from being a traditional industrial town, to becoming a versatile student city with a flourishing cultural life. Malmö University has left its mark on the city as well as the Öresund bridge, our springboard to Copenhagen and the rest of the world. The city vibrates of energy and young people, exciting cultural events, fun club happenings and a wide range of culinary experiences, with dishes from all over the world - a student city to enjoy!

With over 300 000 inhabitants, Malmö is Sweden's third largest city, and the perfect size for a city. You can easily get around the city on foot, by bike or public transportation. Thanks to the City Tunnel you can go between Malmö

Central Station and the Triangeln Station in only 3 minutes, and the travel time to Copenhagen is now only 33 minutes. On the way there, you will pass by Hyllie, where you will find Emporia, Scandinavia's largest shopping mall.

Malmö is a city of diversity, where over 170 nationalities are represented, which of course, also has enriched the city's commercial sector, the range of cultural experiences, and recreational activities. Malmö offers something for everyone! For more information about what is going on right now, visit the city's official tourist guide at www.malmotown.com.

In Malmö, you are never far from the city nor the beach. In this "great little city", all distances are short! Our well-visited city beach, Ribban, is within convenient walking distance from the city center! The beach is 4 km long, and if you're not into feeling the sand under your toes, there is plenty of grass areas and docks for you to use.

Malmö is sometimes called the City of Parks. No other city in Sweden has so many and such beautiful parks as Malmö. In total there are 15 major parks in Malmö that when the weather allows, attracts both young and old for relaxation and entertainment. The uniqueness of Malmö's parks is that each one has a very special character. Stapelbäddsparken is for example a park for action-filled activities, while Bulltofta serves as a great lung of forest in the middle of the city. Pildammsparken is a haven for those who want to stroll around and relax, while Dania Park is the perfect place for sunbathing. Our favorite is the charming Folkets Park, which in addition to large lawns, a fabulous cultural center, a traditional dance palace and beautiful outdoor cafés, also offers adventure golf, a terrarium and a large park square with lots of activities for the children. In the summer, garage sales, concerts and outdoor cinema is organized. The updated program can be found on malmofolketspark.se.

As a final advice on how to get the best out of Malmö, we highly recommend you purchasing a bike. To discover the city on two wheels is not just climate-smart but is also cheap and effective in a city where everything is located at a short distance!

So once again, a warm welcome to Malmö, we hope you will enjoy the city as much as we do!

P.S. For additional recommendations, check out the Student representatives suggestions on page 16.

Congrats, you are admitted!

- but where will you stay?

Malmö is an interesting and dynamic city where much has happened in recent years. Malmö University has left its mark on the city, as well as the Öresund Bridge; our springboard to Copenhagen and the rest of the world. Malmö bristles with young people, exciting cultural events, fun club happenings and a wide range of food experiences with dishes from all over the world! It's a city where a lot of people want to live!

Malmö is growing bigger every day; however, it is not a city solely dedicated to students, as you'll find out when it comes to housing. Unfortunately, Malmö hosts only a small number of student residences. Because of this, it is a good idea to look for housing in Malmö with open eyes. It is more likely that you end up sharing a flat with other students, renting a private room in someone's apartment or house, subletting, or buying an apartment rather than in a typical student dorm. We have put together our best advice to give you a head start in your quest for a roof over your head.

Malmö does not have a campus, so the about 2000 student apartments are scattered around the city. For an overview of the housing options available check out: www.mah.se/housing where you will find links to a great number of housing mediating offices, sublet sites and hostels, to give you a good start in your hunt for accommodation.

At the Unions website malmostudenter.se, we have gathered contact information to a majority of the housing agents in the region. It can be a good idea to try contacting some of the smaller agencies, where there might be less competition. You should also check out the page malmostudenter.se/nystudent/bostad where you can find more tips to help you in your search.

There is an abundance of subletting sites and the biggest and most frequently used is: www.blocket.se, where many people choose to place their ads. There are mainly sublets and private rooms in bigger apartments, which may serve as the perfect solution if your stay is not too long or if you want to live with locals. Malmö University also has their own subletting site at hemma.mah.se/en, where people upload their own ads.

Be careful when renting through private ads and beware of fraudsters! Do not send any money through Western Union or any other money exchange system. Never pay deposits in advance without having signed a contract and seen the flat.

Another suggestion is to get registered at Malmö's housing queue: www.boplatssyd.se. The price to register is SEK 300/year, but register in time - the queues for central 1 and 2 room apartments are long. However, it is a good idea to team up with some friends or fellow students and apply for bigger flats, the queues for them are a bit shorter.

If you are running out of options, the Union has an emergency solution called the Sofa Project, which helps students who, at the beginning of the semester, are left without a place to stay. Through the project we initiate a contact between incoming students and the volunteers who have a free spot on their sofas. The idea is to give students time to familiarize themselves with the housing system in Malmö and find a more permanent accommodation. Check it out at: malmostudenter.se/ny-student/soffprojektet.

If you still don't have a place to stay, please contact us at the Student union and we will do our best to help you!

Get more out of your time as a student: GET INVOLVED IN THE UNION!

Getting involved in the Student Union is not only fun and a great way to meet new friends, it also gives you important experience for your future career. There are a variety of things to get involved in within the Student Union, choose the one that suits your interest best.

As a active member of the Student Union, you'll get the opportunity to get to know interesting people with similar interests as you, and chances are you'll make friends for life. You choose how much time you'll spend on your commitment, but something takes more time than others. Union involvement also gives you valuable experiences, and you will always receive a certificate stating that you have been active in the Student Union. This certificate provides you with a head start when you finish your education and begin to look for a job, as many employers see it as a big plus to have engaged alongside your studies.

To make your choice a bit easier, we have divided the Union's activities in two different parts. If you want to be involved in making important decisions both within the University and the Union, student influence and representation is your thing. For example, you can be a student representative in one of the university's committees, improve your education as a course or program representative, or influence the Union's work. Would you rather become awesome at planning events and activities, then student life is your thing. Take part in organizing everything from soup lunches to the Union's annual festival. The only one that limits what can be done is you!

Student influence and representation

Committees and bodies

The Union represents the students in all committees, groups and bodies of Malmö University. The student perspective is extremely important to the university and serves as a tool to improve education quality. The Union appoints representatives to these committees through five different meetings, called FORUM. For more information about FORUM please contact your student representative. You'll find the contact details on page 18.

At your faculty

Parts of the Student Unions work in the faculties are conducted via the student committees. Each faculty has its own student committee consisting of dedicated students and the faculty's student representative. You meet once a month and raise questions concerning your faculty. All students are welcome; contact your student representative for more info.

At your program or course

Perhaps the most important part of student influence at Malmö University is the students' right to influence their own education. On all programs and courses there are course and program representatives. As a representative you forward your classmates' opinions and attend meetings that affect your education. Contact your student representative for more information about how you can become the representative at your course or program.

Influence at the Student Union

Would you rather decide what the Union should work with? Then you should be a member of the student council. The Student Union Malmö is governed by a council, which is elected by students. The council - or FUM - is the Union's highest decision-making body and is responsible for all decisions and all activities within the Union. FUM consists of 29 members. 19 of them are elected by students in the Union election every spring, and another 10 are elected at FORUM in the beginning of the fall semester. FUM meets 5-6 times a year and takes all general decisions for the entire year.

Working at the Student Union

You also have the opportunity to work full time at the Union. The Union has a president, a vice president and four student representatives who are full time remunerated, and have taken a break from their studies to work a year for the Union. To be able to get one of the positions, you must first be a candidate in the election, become one of the 19 candidates elected for FUM and then apply for the position you want. Working at the Union is stressful and demanding but also incredibly fun and enriching. You will attend long meetings, meet a lot of students and learn everything about Malmö University.

Student life

Union Coffee

Once a month the Union visits your faculty and you get the opportunity to make your voice heard! We offer coffee, have exciting competitions and sometimes we give out surveys to get answers on how you perceive your education. There are lots of fun things that we need your help with, everything from making coffee and talk to students, to carry tables and compile surveys. Sounds interesting? Check what date the next Union Coffee is with the student representative at your faculty, we are always in need of a helping hand, and the more we are, the more fun the event gets!

What is required of you?

How much of your spare time you need to spend on your Union involvement depends on what you are active in. As a FUM member, you should for example be able to spend a few hours for each council meeting, the meetings are held 5-6 times a year. If you choose to help out during Union Coffee, you'll have to spend a few days each semester. In the end, it is you who decide how much or how little you want to get involved. Talk with your student representative for more information. Contact details are on page 18.

Soup lunch

The saying "too many cooks spoil the broth" does not apply at the Union! Every Wednesday we like to be a big and happy group cooking and serving soup lunch in Kølsvinet. Do you think that cooking in a group is the most fun? Can you peel a few kilos of carrots without any problems? Do you have a delicious soup recipe that you'd love to try out? Then this is your thing! Help us with shopping the ingredients, cooking and serving the soup!

Student breakfast

Student breakfast is organized the Tuesday before the 25th each month. It is the Union's way to ensure that students can start their day with a proper morning meal! Don't mind making some coffee? No previous experience needed, but it's a big plus if you are a morning person! If not, we keep the coffee close, and of course we will give you free breakfast!

Music Pub

The last Friday every month the Union and Festmesteriet organize Music Pub in the student pub. We invite local bands and artists to entertain us with live music. Do you want to help plan the event, or do you/your band want to perform? Would you like to learn more about sound and light technology or maybe just help us fill the snacks in the bowl? Contact us at musicpub@malmostudenter.se.

Contact

Does anything above sound like something that you want to get involved in? Or do you just want us to add you to our list of volunteers? Send your contact details to info@malmostudenter.se and we will get back to you with further information.

Would you rather put your involvement in any of the Union's associations? Check them out on the next page!

Study more efficiently with the right STUDY TECHNIQUES

With an accurate study technique, your studies will become more efficient, easier, and more fun! Putting some initial efforts in adopting the right study skills will benefit you for the rest of your life. Here we present various tips on studying and whom to contact if you want further information or individual support.

University studies differ in many ways from high school studies. University studies are driven by each student's individual responsibility for his or her study situation, with less supervised lectures, multiple overlapping group projects, and extensive course literature. It can be difficult both to adjust to the new settings and demands and to organize your time so that you get 40 hours per week dedicated to studies and lectures. What happens if I miss a lecture? How much do I have to read each day? Do I have to read everything? These are common questions to deal with when becoming a university student.

We all have our individual way to learn new things. Some of us learn by listening, others by watching, and others learn best by doing. No way is more efficient than the other - just different. That is why it is important to think through previous learning occasions and to find out what learning looks like for you, so that you can adjust your study technique accordingly!

Even if you are excited about your new studies, things sometimes does not work out as you've planned. If so, it can be a relief to have someone to turn to for advice and support. The Study and Career Counseling center organizes individual counseling and workshops in study and learning techniques. If you don't feel secure with your study techniques and learning skills, it can lead to feelings of stress and anxiety.

It can be difficult to find the right balance between studies and social activities, with the consequence of falling behind the schedule (or the opposite: not having time for anything else besides the studies!). Neither situation is ideal and either situation could harm your health and wellbeing. If you need help with these types of issues, you are welcome to contact the Student Health Service. They will provide you with good advice and accurate support for your individual situation. The Student health service also arranges workshops in how to overcome speech anxiety.

We have put together some general tips and suggestions on how to start improving your learning skills and study technique.

1. Look over your study environment, that is, the place where most of the learning happens. Malmö University offers different types of environments: group rooms and common spaces for studying at your faculty and school library, quiet reading rooms, and open spaces like cafés. The study environment has a huge impact on your study results, and it is crucial that you find the environment best suited for you. The majority find it easiest to focus when it is quiet and calm, but some of us find it helpful with music playing or just a surrounding "buzz".

2. Make it a habit to remind yourself why you want to study and remind yourself about the end goal. Use this technique when finding it hard to start reading your course literature: what do you gain from reading this book or article? More useful advice is to start with the general picture before digging into details. Look through the table of contents and the chapter outlines, browse through the book, read whatever catches your eye, and look for summaries. This makes it easier to understand the main message of the book and you can focus on what parts and chapters are relevant for your aims.

3. Try to make the reading as active as possible by underlining important passages and key concepts. Make your own summary of your underlining and go back to it before the exam.

4. Don't forget to take a break every now and then! Most people can keep focus and concentration for 30 to 45 minutes at a time, so make sure you take smaller "leg stretchers" instead of a few longer breaks. That will increase your stamina and you will certainly remember more!

5. Have you heard the phrase "a sound mind in a sound body"? Adopting that line of reason will get you far! Make sure to establish everyday routines, with healthy and varied eating habits, regular exercise and above all, make sure you get the sleep you need. A lack of routines can lead to unwanted feelings of stress or situations of "express-studying" the night before an exam.

UNION COFFEE

- WE'LL MEET AT YOUR FACULTY

Union Coffee is held once a month at each faculty. The Student Union visits your faculty to meet with students. Your student representative is present and you have the chance to tell us what you think about your education and what needs to be improved at the university.

The event may differ slightly from month to month. Sometimes we have a special theme that we focus on, maybe we ask you to answer questions in a survey, sometimes we bring an interesting company, and we always treat you with a cup of coffee!

Keep an eye on our webpage malmostudenter.se or Facebook page to see which date we will show up at your faculty!

Apply for the Union's LITERATURE SCHOLARSHIP

At the beginning of a course, many new textbooks often need to be purchased, putting a strain on an already thin student wallet. You now have the opportunity to apply for the Student Union literature scholarship - a contribution of SEK 500 awarded to three members at the beginning of the semester.

How to apply:

Send a short text describing why you should win to inforum@malmostudenter.se before February 11th. Your text may not exceed 100 words in length, otherwise the application will be disqualified. Be sure to include your name and personal number when you email. The winner will be contacted personally by the Student Union Malmö, and then presented with his/her motivation on the Student Union website.

Rules:

- Only members of the Student Union Malmö may apply for the scholarship.
- The scholarship will be paid out in the form of a gift certificate of SEK 500 to use for textbooks.
- The same member may receive the scholarship only once per operational year.
- The Student Union Malmö selects the winner, and the decision cannot be appealed.
- Sitting council members cannot be awarded the scholarship.
