Hello all new students!

We warmly welcome you to Malmö! Isn't it a fantastic city? We might be infamous for our strong winds and screaming seagulls but there are many more things to explore here, in Sweden's most diverse city! Use the opportunity to take a dip into the sea after a hot sauna at Kallbadhuset! Soak up some vitamin D with an ice cream in your hand at Västra Hamnen! Check out some of the many cafés or bars in Möllan, where you can enjoy food and culture from all over the world at student-friendly prices! Make sure to find your new favourite falafel spot, because the authentic Malmö-Rulle will undoubtedly become your new best friend after a long night out!

We ourselves have been both new students as well as new in Malmö, just like you! Throughout the years we have explored this amazing city that is full of opportunities, good times and new friendships for life. Now it's your turn to be a part of it!

Student Union Malmö is here to make sure that you get the most out of your time during your studies while also having a rich social life! On top of our own events, we have a bunch of associations and student groups that will likely cover your interests. From lectures on pressing political topics, dancing and other sport activities, feminist or environmental activism, pub and club nights at our student pub, to organised trips abroad - we got it all! If you feel like there is something lacking, you are always welcome to bring in new ideas or even start your own student group or association!

When you feel that your wallet is tight and you can barely afford instant ramen, we have a solution! By becoming a member at the Student Union you get the possibility to stuff your face with ridiculously cheap, yet scrumptious soups during our weekly soup lunches every Wednesday and student breakfasts every month before CSN is paid out. When the Orkanen Library is crammed again you can use Kølsvinet and our study rooms inside to work or hang. You can also use the opportunity to visit our student pub right next door, with student-friendly prices for karaoke, quiz nights and more! Not to mention, by being a member you are eligible for student discounts all over Sweden!

Besides the study-social aspects, we are also always here to support you in any issue that might come up in your education. Feeling treated unfairly? Not enough spaces to study? Not satisfied with the quality of your course? Tell us about it while swinging by the Student Union House and grab a free coffee in Kølsvinet or contact us online - We are always there for you to make sure that your rights are respected and your voices are heard!

In order for that to happen we act as watchdogs behind the scenes of the university, where we sit in all important meetings and committees, and you can become a part of that, too! If you want to make an impact on your programme, you can get active through us and be a student representative for your peers.

As you should have understood by now, you made the right choice coming to Malmö - an exciting and extraordinary city that provides endless possibilities! We are happy to have you and are looking forward to meeting you. Välkommen till Malmö!

CHECKLIST

- things to get done
your first weeks

At the beginning of the semester, there are many things that need to be fixed, as well as much to learn and a lot to keep track of! To make things easier for you as a new student, we've put together a checklist of key things you should do to get the best possible start!

1 Find accommodation

To find a place to live is often the first problem to solve. We know how difficult it is for students to find accommodation in Malmö, so we have gathered some tips that hopefully can be helpful. Read our advices on page 6: Where will you live?

2 Get a Computer-ID

You need your computer-ID to log on to computers, accessing the wireless network, and Canvas. You must order your computer-ID before you can register for your course. You can do it at idservice.mau.se/.

3 Get a Multicard

Your multicard functions both as your library card, copy card, and access card. You can apply for a Multicard at Orkanen and Health and society. More information is available at student.mau.se when you search for 'multicard'.

4 Get a Wi-Fi account

To be able to connect to Malmö University's wireless network, Eduroam, you need to create a Wi-Fi account. Follow the steps in this guide: <https://student.mau.se/en/student-services/it-support/wireless-network/> and you'll be done in no time!

5 Join the Student Union

Whether you need help with school, to find a nightclub or just a microwave to warm up your lunch, the Student Union is here for you. To become a member, head to <https://malmostudenter.se/en/member/> and follow the instructions, or visit the Union during our office hours. The membership fee is SEK 198/ year or SEK 99 for a semester. Read more on page 8.

6 Join an association

Along with school stuff, you also need social activities. The Student Union Malmö offers a wide range of associations that are open for all members. Can't find anything for you? Start a Student Group or an association yourself! Find out more about Union associations on page 12: Associations.

7 Literature scholarship

When the course starts, many new textbooks need to be purchased, putting a strain on the already thin student wallet. Apply for the Union's literary scholarship - a contribution of SEK 500 that is awarded to 3 members at the start of the semester. Find out more on page 14.

8 Get a bicycle

Biking is a smooth way of getting around in Malmö, both cheaper and more environmentally friendly than taking the bus! Check out Malmö City bicycle auctions for bike bargains or get a one-year subscription for rental bikes at malmobybike.se/en.

9 Attend Insparken

As a international student, you get a welcoming during the International Introduction. But you are of course also welcome to join the regular introduction weeks called Insparken. Insparken is organized by Festmesteriet and includes activities as city tour, bbq, parties, etc.

See Festmesteriet.se or the Festmesteriet Facebook Page for more details..

10 Attend the Union Days

The Union Days is a student fair organized in the beginning of the semester where you get the chance to meet the Union, our associations, various companies and the university services. The dates for the Union days are: 15 - 17th september in Kølsvinet at the Union House.

11 Stay updated!

Welcome to Malmö!

Welcome to Malmö, a student city in the making! Malmö is an open and dynamic city with people, culture, language and cuisine from every corner of the world! Malmö offers various cultural experiences, beach life and a diversity of events and activities. Malmö is an arena for discoveries and development, this is where ideas are born!

Congratulations! As a student and Malmö resident you will arrive to a fun and exciting city within one of Europe's most expansive regions! Malmö is in the middle of a dynamic change from being a traditional industrial town, to becoming a versatile student city with a flourishing cultural life. Malmö University has left its mark on the city as well as the Öresund bridge, our springboard to Copenhagen and the rest of the world. The city vibrates of energy and young people, exciting cultural events, fun club happenings and a wide range of culinary experiences, with dishes from all over the world

- a student city to enjoy!

With over 330 000 inhabitants, Malmö is Sweden's third largest city, and the perfect size for a city. You can easily get around the city on foot, by bike or public transportation. Thanks to the City Tunnel you can go between Malmö Central Station and the Triangeln Station in only 3 minutes, and the travel time to Copenhagen is now only 30 minutes. On the way there, you will pass by Hyllie, where you will find Emporia, Scandinavia's largest shopping mall.

Malmö is a city of diversity, where over 170 nationalities are represented, which of course, also has enriched the city's commercial sector, the range of cultural experiences, and recreational activities. Malmö offers something for everyone! For more information about what is going on right now, visit the city's official tourist guide at www.malmotown.com.

In Malmö, you are never far from the city nor the beach. In this "great little city", all distances are short! Our well-visited city beach, Ribban, is within convenient walking distance from the city center! The beach is 4 km long, and if you're not into feeling the sand under your toes, there is plenty of grass areas and docks for you to use.

Malmö is sometimes called the City of Parks. No other city in Sweden has so many and such beautiful parks as Malmö. In total there are 15 major parks in Malmö that when the weather allows, attracts both young and old for relaxation and entertainment. The uniqueness of Malmö's parks is that each one has a very special character.

Stapelbäddsparken is for example a park for action-filled activities, while Bulltofta serves as a great lung of forest in the middle of the city.

Pildammsparken is a haven for those who want to stroll around and relax, while Dania Park is the perfect place for sunbathing. Our favorite is the charming Folkets Park, which in addition to large lawns, a fabulous cultural center, a traditional dance palaces and beautiful outdoor cafés, also offers adventure golf, a terrarium and a large park square with lots of activities for the children. In the summer, garage sales, concerts and outdoor cinema is organized.

The updated program can be found on malmofolketspark.se.

As a final advice on how to get the best out of Malmö, we highly recommend you purchasing a bike. To discover the city on two wheels is not just climate-smart but is also cheap and effective in a city where everything is located at a short distance!

So once again, a warm welcome to Malmö, we hope you will enjoy the city as much as we do!

PS. For additional recommendations, check out the Student ombuds' suggestions on page 15.

Congrats, you are admitted!

– but where will you live?

Malmö is an interesting and dynamic city where much has happened in recent years. Malmö University has left its mark on the city, as well as the Öresund Bridge; our springboard to Copenhagen and the rest of the world. Malmö bristles with young people, exciting cultural events, fun club happenings and a wide range of food experiences with dishes from all over the world! It's a city where a lot of people want to live!

Malmö is growing bigger every day; however, it is not a city solely dedicated to students, as you'll find out when it comes to housing. Unfortunately, Malmö hosts only a small number of student residences. Because of this, it is a good idea to look for housing in Malmö with open eyes. It is more likely that you end up sharing a flat with other students, renting a private room in someone's apartment or house, subletting, or buying an apartment rather than in a typical student dorm. We have put together our best advices to give you a head start in your quest for a roof over your head.

Malmö does not have a campus, so the student apartments are scattered around the city. For an overview of the housing options available check out: <https://mau.se/en/after-admission/housing/> where you will find links to a great number of housing mediating offices, sublet sites and hostels, to give you a good start in your hunt for accommodation.

At the Unions website malmostudenter.se, we have gathered contact information to a majority of the housing agents in the region. It can be a good idea to try contacting some of the smaller agencies, where there might be less competition. You should also check out the page <https://malmostudenter.se/en/english/housing/> where you can find more tips to help you in your search.

There is an abundance of subletting sites and the biggest and most frequently used is: www.blocket.se, where many people choose to place their ads. There are mainly sublets and private rooms in bigger apartments, which may serve as the perfect solution if your stay is not too long or if you want to live with locals. We at the Student Union Malmö also have our own subletting site at hemma.malmmostudenter.se/en, where people upload their own ads.

Be careful when renting through private ads and beware of fraudsters! Do not send any money through Western Union or any other money exchange system. Never pay deposits in advance without having signed a contract and seen the flat.

Another suggestion is to get registered at Malmö's housing queue: www.boplatssyd.se. The price to register is SEK 300/ year, but register in time - the queues for central 1 and 2 room apartments are long. However, it is a good idea to team up with some friends or fellow students and apply for bigger flats, the queues for them are a bit shorter.

If you are running out of options, the Union has an emergency solution called the Sofa Project, which helps students who, at the beginning of the semester, are left without a place to stay. Through the project we initiate a contact between incoming students and the volunteers who have a free spot on their sofas. The idea is to give students time to familiarize themselves with the housing system in Malmö and find a more permanent accommodation. Check it out at: <https://malmostudenter.se/en/sofa-project/>.

If you still don't have a place to stay, please contact us at the Student union and we will do our best to help you!

Study more efficiently with the right STUDY TECHNIQUES

With an accurate study technique, your studies will become more efficient, easier, and more fun! Putting some initial efforts in adopting the right study skills will benefit you for the rest of your life. Here we present various tips on studying and whom to contact if you want further information or individual support.

University studies differ in many ways from high school studies. University studies are driven by each student's individual responsibility for his or her study situation, with less supervised lectures, multiple overlapping group projects, and extensive course literature. It can be difficult both to adjust to the new settings and demands and to organize your time so that you get 40 hours per week dedicated to studies and lectures. What happens if I miss a lecture? How much do I have to read each day? Do I have to read everything? These are common questions to deal with when becoming a university student.

We all have our individual way to learn new things. Some of us learn by listening, others by watching, and others learn best by doing. No way is more efficient than the other - just different.

That is why it is important to think through previous learning occasions and to find out what learning looks like for you, so that you can adjust your study technique accordingly!

Even if you are excited about your new studies, things sometimes does not work out as you've planned. If so, it can be a relief to have someone to turn to for advice and support. The Study and Career Counseling center organizes individual counseling and workshops in study and learning techniques. If you don't feel secure with your study techniques and learning skills, it can lead to feelings of stress and anxiety.

It can be difficult to find the right balance between studies and social activities, with the consequence of falling behind the schedule (or the opposite: not having time for anything else besides the studies!). Neither situation is ideal and either situation could harm your health and wellbeing. If you need help with these types of issues, you are welcome to contact the Student Health Service.

They will provide you with good advice and accurate support for your individual situation. The Student health service also arranges workshops in how to overcome speech anxiety.

We have put together some general tips and suggestions on how to start improving your learning skills and study technique:

1. Look over your study environment, that is, the place where most of the learning happens. Malmö University offers different types of environments: group rooms and common spaces for studying at your faculty and school library, quiet reading rooms, and open spaces like cafés. At the Union there are spaces for studying, even study rooms for you or your study group. The study environment has a huge impact on your study results, and it is crucial that you find the environment best suited for you. The majority find it easiest to focus when it is quiet and calm, but some of us find it helpful with music playing or just a surrounding "buzz".

2. Make it a habit to remind yourself why you want to study and remind yourself about the end goal. Use this technique when finding it hard to start reading your course literature: what do you gain from reading this book or article? More useful advice is to start with the general picture before digging into details. Look through the table of contents and the chapter outlines, browse through the book, read whatever catches your eye, and look for summaries. This makes it easier to understand the main message of the book and you can focus on what parts and chapters are relevant for your aims.

3. Try to make the reading as active as possible by underlining important passages and key concepts. Make your own summary of your underlining and go back to it before the exam.

4. Don't forget to take a break every now and then! Most people can keep focus and concentration for 30 to 45 minutes at a time, so make sure you take smaller "leg stretchers" instead of a few longer breaks. That will increase your stamina and you will certainly remember more!

5. Have you heard the phrase "a sound mind in a sound body"? Adopting that line of reason will get you far! Make sure to establish everyday routines, with healthy and varied eating habits, regular exercise and above all, make sure you get the sleep you need. A lack of routines can lead to unwanted feelings of stress or situations of "express-studying" the night before an exam.

Get more out of your time as a student: GET INVOLVED IN THE UNION!

Getting involved in the Student Union is not only fun and a great way to meet new friends, it also gives you important experience for your future career. There are a variety of things to get involved in within the Student Union, choose the one that suits your interest best.

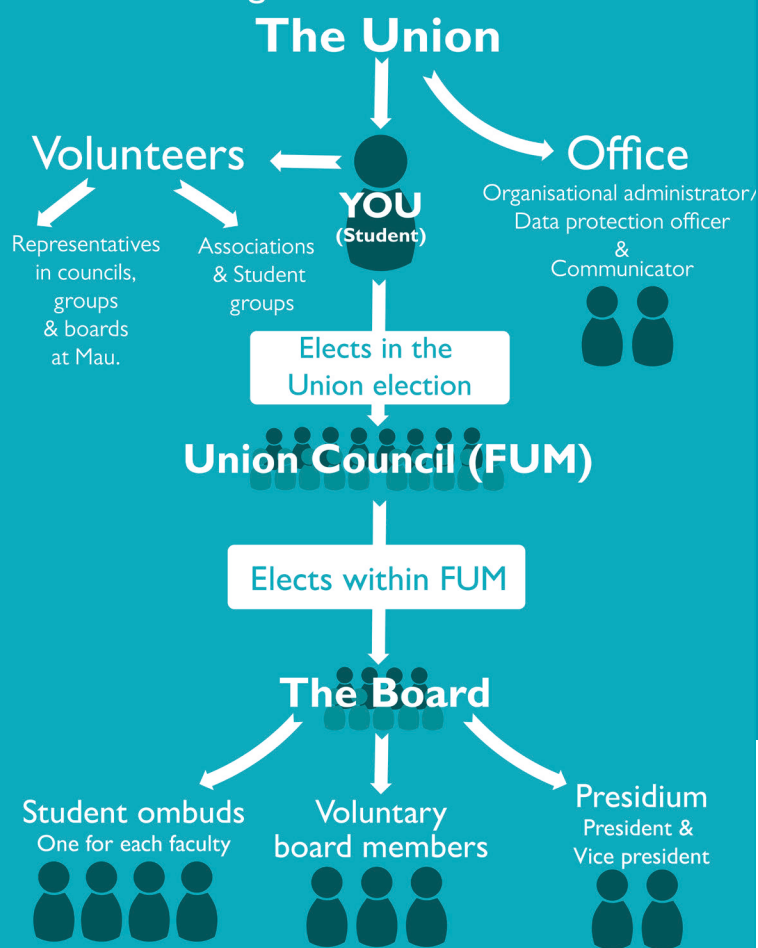

As a active member of the Student Union, you'll get the opportunity to get to know interesting people with similar interests as you, and chances are you'll make friends for life. You choose how much time you'll spend on your commitment, but some things take more time than others. Union involvement also gives you valuable experiences, and you will always receive a certificate stating that you have been active in the Student Union. This certificate provides you with a head start when you finish your education and begin to look for a job, as many employers see it as a big plus to have engaged alongside your studies.

To make your choice a bit easier, we have divided the Union's activities in two different parts. If you want to be involved in making important decisions both within the University and the Union, student influence and representation is your thing. For example, you can be a student representative in one of the University's committees, improve your education as a course or program representative, or influence the Union's work. Would you rather become awesome at planning events and activities, then student life is your thing. Take part in organizing everything from soup lunches to the Union's annual festival. The only one that limits what can be done is you!

Student influence and representation The Student Union Council (FUM)

The word FUM is something you will hear a lot during your time of studies. The Student Union Malmö is governed by a council, which is elected by students. The council (FUM) - is the Union's highest decision-making body and is responsible for all decisions and all activities within the Union. FUM consists of 29 members. 19 of them are elected by students in the Union Election every spring, and 10 are elected at FORUM in the beginning of the fall semester. FUM meets 5-6 times a year and takes all general decisions for the entire year. Would you like to decide what the Union should work with? Then you should be a member of the student council.

What does the Student Union Malmö's organisation look like?

Committees and bodies

The Union represents the students in all committees, groups and bodies of Malmö University. The student perspective is extremely important to the university and serves as a tool to improve education quality. The Union appoints representatives to these committees through five different meetings, called FORUM. For more information about FORUM please contact your student ombud. You'll find the contact details on page 15.

At your faculty

Parts of the Student Unions work in the faculties are conducted via the student committees. Each faculty has its own student committee consisting of dedicated students and the faculty's student ombud. You meet once a month and raise questions concerning your faculty. All students are welcome; contact your student ombud for more info.

At your program or course

Perhaps the most important part of student influence at Malmö University is the students' right to influence their own education. On all programs and courses there are course and program representatives. As a representative you forward your classmates' opinions and attend meetings that affect your education. Contact your student ombud for more information about how you can become the representative at your course or program.

Working at the Student Union

You also have the opportunity to work full time at the Union. The Union has a President, two Vice Presidents and four Student ombuds who are full time remunerated, and have taken a break from their studies to work a year for the Union. To be able to get one of the positions, you must first be a candidate in the Union Election, become one of the 19 candidates elected for FUM and then apply for the position you want. Working at the Union is stressful and demanding but also incredibly fun and enriching. You will attend important meetings, meet a lot of students and learn everything about Malmö University. If you don't want to work full time you can also be part of the Union board as a volunteer, which the board has four of.

Student life

Soup lunch*

The saying "too many cooks spoil the broth" does not apply at the Union! Every Wednesday we like to be a big and happy group cooking and serving soup lunch in Kølsvinet. Do you think that cooking in a group is the most fun? Can you peel a few kilos of carrots without any problems? Do you have a delicious soup recipe that you'd love to try out? Then this is your thing! Help us with shopping the ingredients, cooking and serving the soup!

Student breakfast*

Student breakfast is organized the Tuesday before the 25th each month. It is the Unions way to ensure that students can start their day with a proper morning meal! Don't mind making some coffee? No previous experience needed, but it's a big plus if you're a morning person! If not, we keep the coffee close, and of course we will give you free breakfast!

Music Pub*

The last Friday every month the Union and Festmesteriet organize Music Pub in the Student Pub. We invite local bands and artists to entertain us with live music. Do you want to help plan the event, or do you/your band wants to perform? Would you like to learn more about sound and light technology or what it's like to run a music pub? Contact us at musicpub@malmostudenter.se.

Coffee with the Union*

Once a month the Union visits your faculty and you get the opportunity to make your voice heard! We offer coffee, have exciting competitions and we give out surveys to get answers on how you perceive your education. There are lots of fun things that we need your help with, everything from making coffee and talk to students, to carry tables and compile surveys. Sounds interesting? Check what date the next Union Coffee is with the student ombud at your faculty, we are always in need of a helping hand, and the more we are, the more fun the event gets!

Coffee with the Union takes place 13-15 October, 10-12 November and 11 December.

What is required of you?

How much of your spare time you need to spend on your Union involvement depends on what you are active in. As a FUM member, you should for example be able to spend a few hours for each council meeting, the meetings are held 5-6 times a year. If you choose to help out during Union Coffee, you'll have to spend a few days each semester. In the end, it is you who decide how much or how little you want to get involved. Talk with your student ombud for more information. Contact details are on page 15.

Does anything above sound like something that you want to get involved in? Or do you just want us to add you on our list of volunteers? Send your contact details to receptionen@malmostudenter.se and we will get back to you with further information.

Coffee with the Union is always between 10-14 pm. See more detailed info and the upcoming Coffee with the Union events on our Facebook page.

INSPARKEN / INITIATION

Arriving in a new city can sometimes be overwhelming. Far away from family and friends, it's easy to feel a bit lonely. At the beginning of each semester, the Union & the association Festmesteriet, organize activities where you get to know new people & your new city. It's the perfect opportunity to kick start your time in Malmö!

The Initiation weeks (Insparken) are often the first opportunity for new students to meet new friends. To hang out during fun & exciting activities is often a good icebreaker. Insparken is organized by Festmesteriet, the Union's official party association.

During Insparken you will get divided into teams with other students from your faculty, your team competes against all the other teams during the day and at night you all come together to party! Every team gets their own fadders, who are here to welcome you and to answer your questions about the Student Union, the University, & Malmö.

Find the schedule at Festmesteriet.se, Festmesteriet and the Union's Facebook page and in the Facebook group 'Mau Inspark'
