

Real estate law and Real estate economics Thesis Award

Samhällsbyggarna (Professionals for the Built Environment) is pleased to announce that the award and competition for best thesis in Real estate law and Real estate economics in 2021 are now open for submission.

Examples of research topics valid for submission:

Real estate law: Planning and building rights, property formation rights, financing of common goods as well as access and compensation investigation, etc.

Real estate economics: Economic aspects and valuation of properties such as detached houses, condominiums as well as land, woodland and forestry properties and building rights.

The assessment of the submitted thesis will be based on its abilities to convey interesting aspects of current trends issues within the fields of research, as well as its practical applications. The thesis should have news value and be well written in a clear and engaging way.

The award totals are SEK 15.000 if a student has written the thesis alone and SEK 10.000 per student if two students have collaborated. If more than two students have written the thesis, they may share SEK 20.000.

Theses considered for assessment must be approved during the second half of 2020 or the first half of 2021.

The thesis must be submitted to Samhällsbyggarna no later than June 30th to info@samhallsbyggarna.org

For further inquiries and information regarding the awards, please contact:

- Real Estate Economics: Peter Palm, peter.palm@samhallsbyggarna.org
- Real Estate Law: Linda Sabel, linda.sabel@lm.se

Samhällsbyggarna (Professionals for the Built Environment) is an NGO with approximately 4000 members focusing on all aspects of the built environment.